

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Thursday Morning Social Tennis

1. These terms and conditions govern our Club's Thursday morning social tennis ("social tennis"). I agree that as a social tennis player and/or spectator I will comply with these terms and conditions.
2. I will:
 - a) embrace a sense of openness, inclusiveness, respect and friendliness amongst all social tennis players and spectators;
 - b) try to have fun and enjoy the morning and not be disrespectful or judgemental of any other social tennis player or spectator;
 - c) aim for competitive but balanced social tennis play, selecting partners and opponents in good faith applying a welcoming and fair process;
 - d) share the Club courts with other social tennis players ensuring all such players (irrespective of age, gender or ability) have an equal opportunity to a play on a morning if courts are limited;
 - e) resolve any social tennis player or spectator disputes I may be involved in quickly and amicably;
 - f) adhere to all Club court selection and scheduling decisions (particularly in relation to Club coaching and competition tennis which I acknowledge have priority over the social tennis);
 - g) if I am not a Club member, pay the relevant Club nominated representative the nominated weekly player fee and annual Tennis Victoria registration fee (for forwarding to the Club Treasurer);
 - h) provide to the relevant Club nominated representative my contact details (for forwarding to the Member Co-ordinator);
 - i) ensure the Clubhouse and courts are clean, tidy and closed / secured after each social tennis use;
 - j) talk with a Club Committee member about any concerns I may have regarding the Club, the social tennis or another player or spectator;
 - k) adhere to all Club Committee directions relevant to the social tennis;
 - l) comply with all relevant Club member protection policies (including codes of conduct); and
 - m) otherwise promote the Club's values and principles as detailed in those member protection policies.
